

Welcome back to Redborne

Year 9 Parents Evening November 2017

Indicators and effort grades

Steve Gray Head of School

In the next 40 minutes...

- Distribution and explanation of indicator grades
- KS4 curriculum
- Introducing the options system
- Independent study skills and reporting
- Pastoral support, agencies, attendance & punctuality
- The Redborne Way, sanctions and praise

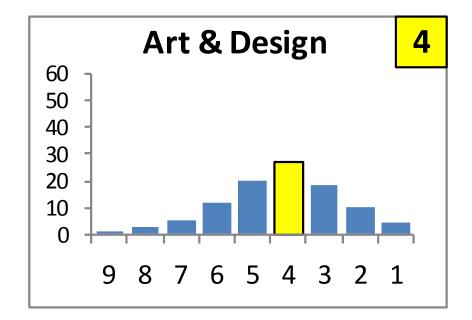

In the next 10 minutes...

- What is an indicator?
- How can we set targets?
- What's the link between indicators, effort and progress?

Indicators and targets

• The yellow bar is the indicator.

- Indicators do not predict your performance: they are about other people who were at a similar level in year 6.
- It's an average so up to half of all students nationally achieve better than the indicator.
- You are a person not a statistic! If your effort is high you are likely to beat your indicators.
- Can you beat your indicators? This is our challenge to you!

The Key Stage 4 curriculum

Alex Day Deputy Headteacher

The Key Stage 4 curriculum

There will be two parts to your curriculum:

- The core subjects where you will have already started on work that could be relevant to GCSEs in Year 9
- The options, where you can choose subjects that play to your strengths or career aspirations

Core subjects

- This will make up 60% of your timetable (30 periods per fortnight)
- Subjects include English, maths, science, ethical thinking (RS), PE, independent learning and personal wellbeing
- You should get 5 qualifications from core
- GCSE English language and literature
- GCSE maths
- GCSE combined science (double award)

Option subjects

- FOUR option blocks
- Over 25 subjects on offer at Redborne
- We reduced the number of options by one last year to relieve the pressure on students, but...
- ...this is still a bigger choice than is available at many other schools
- There should be something for you!

The English Baccalaureate

- The 'EBacc' for short!
- The government wants more students to follow this combination of subjects...
- ...but it's not compulsory (at least, not at Redborne)
- Involves: maths, English, combined or triple science or computer science, a language, and geography or history

The options process

Chris Graves Assistant Headteacher

The options process

- Planning currently underway
- Begins for students and parents on Friday 12th January 2018

- Option block pattern also issued
- Start looking then at possible options that are right for you

Options evening

- Bring report, options booklet, options block form and indicator grades from tonight
- Opportunity to discuss progress with core teachers
- Opportunity to find out about other subjects

Return of Options form

- Options form to be returned on Monday, 19th February, 2018
- All of half term to consider
- Make your choice count
- Late forms might mean disappointment
- We will let you know if there is a problem

New timetable

- Begins on Monday, 4th June, 2018
- Big sigh of relief two weeks later
- Make sure you know what you are signing up for
- If you get it wrong, change might be possible but choice will be restricted

Pastoral Report

Year 9 Spring Term

Pastoral Comment:

Ian has settled very well into life at Redborne and has shown himself to be a really enthusiastic and motivated student and member of the form group. He has clearly relished the opportunity to get to know new people and has made positive friendships. Ian has contributed to various charity activities and collections and has thrown himself into dance club. He should be proud of his outstanding effort grades and academic progress, particularly in English but has set himself the challenge to put her hand up more in class. Ian's attendance at school is slightly below average but this has not held her back and has clearly been linked to genuine illness.

Ms L. Chesover

This is a very impressive report! Ian should be very proud of his achievements and these excellent effort grades place him in the top 20 in the year group. He also scores very highly for progress, and is one of only six students in the year who has managed to get an 'OP' in five separate subjects. Congratulations and keep up the good work!

Mr S Gray

I would like to echo Mr Gray's comments on behalf of the year team. We have been very impressed by Ian's report, which puts him in a very strong position as she decides upon which subjects to choose for GCSE. Well done, Ian! This report should enable you to feel more confident and contribute more fully to all lesson activities.

In English, pupils develop and build upon the skills taught at middle school. Students have currently studied a novel and a wide range of travel writing and related media in class. They have developed their ability to analyse authorial viewpoint and presentational devices, as well as writing for a range of purposes and audiences. In the new term students will move on to study creative writing in poetry and prose form. Current attainment is assessed using the new GCSE grading system and takes into account writing, reading and speaking and listening skills.

Targets:

- 1. Consider how the writer makes you think or feel
- You must ensure you bring your exercise book to every lesson, as it is a vital resource
- 3. Show your working for every question you complete

Making the most of every lesson:

Before the lesson – prepare any questions that you might have from the last lesson/check you have the required resources

During the lesson – listen/make notes as the teacher is giving input/check your understanding throughout the lesson/join in as much as possible/question if you don't understand

After the lesson – check any notes for understanding and detail/make revision cards/finish any outstanding work/do extended learning tasks/read additional information about the topic/learn the information

Rewarding the positive

- Pupils gain achievement points, e.g. for good work, effort or behaviour in lessons
- Extra points will be added after each progress check
- There is a scale for effort grades with more points for the top grades: U=0, W=1, N=3, G=5, V=7, O=10
- You will get points on your account if you average at least a 'good' – this will be worth 50 points.
- A 'perfect score' would get 100 points

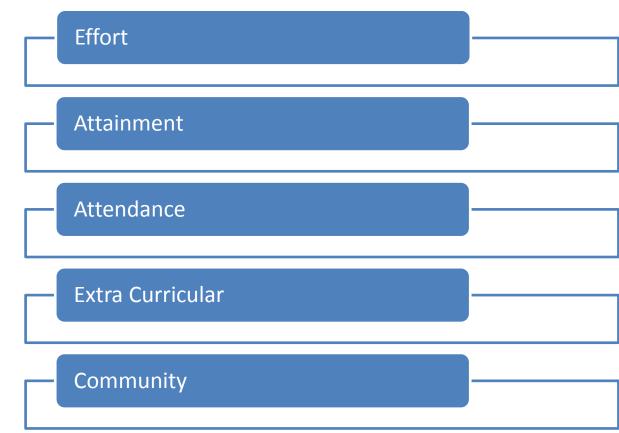

Scoring achievement points

<5.00	Average of below a G	0
5.00+	(Just) good	50
5.50+	'Secure' good	55

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme has been running successfully for many decades across the UK and the world.

At Redborne, D of E has been a highly popular and rewarding extra-curricular activity for many years. Whole School Production 2017

Into the Woods by Stephen Sondheim

Rehearsals are underway for this year's whole school production. Into the Woods, uses a cast of around 30 singers to tell a musical adaption of intertwined plots of several Brothers Grimm and Charles Perrault fairy tales, exploring the consequences of the characters' wishes and quests. The main characters are taken from "Little Red Riding Hood", "Jack and the Beasstalk", "Raduncel", and "Cinderella", as well as several others. The musical is tied together by a story involving a childless baker and his wife and their quest to begin a family the original beginning of The Grimm Brothers' Rapunzel's, their interaction with a witch who has placed a curse on them, and their interaction with other storybook characters during their journey. peasant girl who takes a child from its neglectful and monstrous mother in order to give it a better chance in life.

Students are rehearsing twice a week and are honing their singing, movement, vocal and ensemble skills for the performances on 22nd - 24th November 2017 in the Connolly Hall. There are still opportunities for students to get involved in Front of House responsibilities such as catering, hospitality and selling programmes as well as backstage assistance with set building, creating costumes and prop making.

For more information on how to get involved in this exciting project, please contact Mr Battone (stbbottone@redborne.beds.sch.uk)
