

KS4 Curriculum Overview - Geography

Your child will learn about the human and physical geography of the world in which we live and the contemporary issues that affect us all.

Term	Year 10	Year 11
Autumn 1	Ecosystems: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amazon rainforest case study New Forest case study 	Global Development: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> India case study
Autumn 2	Changing Cities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mumbai case study Birmingham case study 	Global Development (continued): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> As above
Spring 1	Changing Cities (continued): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> As above 	Weather Hazards and Climate Change: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hurricane Sandy case study Typhoon Haiyan case study California drought case study Ethiopia drought case study
Spring 2	Changing Landscapes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Coastal Landscapes River Landscapes 	Weather Hazards and Climate Change (continued): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> As above
Summer 1	Changing Landscapes (continued): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> As above 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> UK Challenges
Summer 2	Energy Resource Management <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fieldwork 	GCSE Public Examinations

Through the study of Geography your child will be expected to develop the following knowledge, skills and understanding:

Literacy skills	Wider geographic skills
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Description Explanation Analysis Evaluation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Atlas / map reading Graphical skills Data and information research Investigative skills

Parents can support their child by encouraging them to consolidate their learning using the resources on the Google Classroom and ensuring that students complete Seneca Learning assignments that are set for homework and revision.